

Procedures for Filing a Title IX Grievance with the Title IX Coordinator

Title IX regulations prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes sexual harassment and sexual violence, in its programs and activities. Our school is committed to maintaining an educational and working environment that is free from discrimination and harassment, including maintaining an environment in which no student or staff member is excluded from participation in or denied the benefits of its programs and activities as a result of gender. Any employee, student or contract worker who violates this policy will be subject to disciplinary action. To the extent a customer, vendor or other person with whom the School does business engages in unlawful harassment or discrimination, the School will take appropriate corrective action.

Our school has jurisdiction over Title IX complaints. When a student or staff member feels that he/she has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex, then he/she may use these Title IX grievance procedures to bring concerns to the attention of the school's Title IX Coordinator for the purpose of obtaining a prompt and equitable resolution/action to prevent, to correct, and if necessary, to discipline behavior that violates this policy.

As part of the School's commitment to providing a harassment-free working and learning environment, this policy shall be disseminated to the School community through publications, the School website, new employee orientations, student orientations, and other appropriate channels of communication. The School provides training to key staff members to enable the School to handle any allegations of sexual harassment or sexual violence promptly and effectively.

1. The Title IX Coordinator

The School Directors, at all campuses, are responsible for coordinating the school's compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and serves as the school's Title IX Coordinator.

The School ensures that its employee(s) designated to serve as Title IX Coordinator have received training on what constitutes sexual harassment, including sexual violence, and that they understand how the School's grievance procedures operate. Because complaints can also be filed with an employee's supervisor, these employees also receive training on the School's grievance procedures and any other procedures used for investigating reports of sexual harassment.

2. General Principles

For the purpose of these grievance procedures, "Title IX Coordinator" shall mean the School Directors, unless otherwise specified. Where appropriate and with prior notice where applicable, these grievance procedures may be modified or amended by the Title IX Coordinators.

Privacy and confidentiality:

All activities under these grievance procedures shall be conducted with due regard for any legitimate privacy and reputational interests of those involved. It is expected that any materials and information prepared or acquired under these grievance procedures will be shared only with those who have a legitimate need to know. Disclosure of such information may also be made if it is permitted by law and the Title IX Coordinator determines in his or her judgment: (1) that such disclosure is necessary to protect the health, safety, or well-being of members of the community; or (2) that such disclosure advances the interests of those involved in the process and/or the school and outweighs the interest in confidentiality. While the Title IX Coordinator will take into account any requests made by a complainant for confidentiality or that a Title IX grievance not be investigated, the Title IX Coordinator must take appropriate steps to respond to the grievance consistent with the requirements of Title IX. The School reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, or a change in student status.

Retaliation:

Retaliation against any person within the school, either for alleging discrimination prohibited by Title IX or for cooperating in these grievance procedures, is strictly prohibited. Sanctions may include suspension up to termination.

Preponderance of Evidence:

The Title IX Coordinator shall review allegations of discrimination prohibited by Title IX by applying a preponderance of the evidence standard. This means that the complainant has the burden of proving the facts and claims asserted in the complaint.

Right of Appeal and Review of Disciplinary Proceedings:

If a complainant wishes to appeal the decisions of the Title IX Coordinator regarding remedial measures, he/she may make a single written appeal to the Director of Compliance. The information taken during the original investigation will be given to an appeal panel consisting of all other Title IX Coordinators from other campuses. The determination will be made based upon the preponderance of evidence. The alleged perpetrator will be informed of the appeal in writing. The appeal panel will provide a written decision within 45 days of the receipt of the written appeal.

3. Definitions

Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature. It includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment is conduct that explicitly or implicitly affects a person's employment or education or interferes with a person's work or educational performance or creates an environment such that a reasonable person would find the conduct intimidating, hostile or offensive.

Sexual Violence is defined as physical sexual acts engaged in without the consent of the other person or when the other person is unable to consent to the activity. Sexual violence includes sexual assault, rape, battery, and sexual coercion; domestic violence; dating violence; and stalking.

Domestic Violence is defined as abuse committed against an adult or a minor who is a spouse or former spouse, cohabitant or former cohabitant, or someone with whom the abuser has a child, has an existing dating or engagement relationship, or has had a former dating or engagement relationship.

Dating Violence is defined as abuse committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.

Sexual Assault occurs when a physical sexual activity is engaged in without the consent of the other person or when the other person is unable to consent to the activity. The activity or conduct may include physical force, violence, threat, or intimidation, ignoring the objections of the other person, causing the other person's intoxication or incapacitation through the use of drugs or alcohol, and taking advantage of the other person's incapacitation (including voluntary intoxication).

Stalking is behavior in which a person repeatedly engages in conduct directed at a specific person that places that person in reasonable fear of his or her safety or the safety of others.

Hostile Environment is defined as an offensive work environment, which means the alleged conduct is sufficiently serious to limit or deny a student or staff's ability to participate or benefit from the educational programs or activities.

Retaliation is defined as any adverse action taken against a complainant for filing a complaint. This extends to not only the alleged perpetrator, but to individuals who support the alleged perpetrator.

Intimidation is defined as an intentional behavior that “would cause a person of ordinary sensibilities” fear of injury or harm.

Consent is informed, voluntary and revocable. Consent is an affirmative, unambiguous, and conscious decision by each participant to engage in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity. It must be given without coercion, force, threats or intimidation. Consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual encounter and can be revoked at any time. Once consent is withdrawn, the sexual activity must stop immediately.

4. Procedures

Any student or staff member who believes that he/she has been subjected to discrimination prohibited by Title IX, or that the school has failed to meet its Title IX obligations, may bring the concern to the attention of the Title IX Coordinator (School Director) or Director of Compliance (for staff issues) as soon as possible. While the Title IX Coordinator welcomes an informal presentation of such allegations, and is available to address concerns through discussion, advice, and informal resolution, the Title IX Coordinator is fully prepared to receive and address such allegations through formal grievance procedures.

The Title IX Coordinator has the authority to investigate allegations of discrimination prohibited by Title IX even absent the filing of a formal grievance. In addition, the Title IX Coordinator may proceed with investigating a formal or informal grievance even if a complainant specifically requests that the matter not be pursued. In such a circumstance, the Title IX Coordinator will take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the matter in a manner which is informed by the complainant’s articulated concerns.

In most circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator will coordinate his/her activities charged with responsibilities for the student and staff conduct/discipline and for enforcing the school’s policies and procedures generally. No employee, contract worker, student, vendor or other person who does business with the School is exempt from the prohibitions in this policy.

Informal Grievance Resolution

In many instances, advice or informal discussion may be useful in resolving concerns about allegations of discrimination prohibited by Title IX. Complainants who wish to resolve their concerns informally should bring them to the attention of the Title IX Coordinator within the campus.

In working to resolve the matter, the Title IX Coordinator ordinarily will interview the complainant and, as appropriate, others who may have knowledge of the facts underlying the grievance. At any point, including while the informal process is ongoing or afterward, the complainant may elect to end the informal process in favor of filing a formal grievance. At this time, although the School will do everything possible in regards to confidentiality, the complainant should be aware that the identity of the charging party and the substance of the complaint could be revealed to the alleged perpetrator of the harassment or witnesses.

Although the school welcomes informal resolution of grievances when appropriate, it will not use mediation between a complainant and alleged perpetrator or any other informal resolution mechanism to resolve grievances pertaining to non-consensual sexual contact or non-consensual sexual penetration.

Grievance Procedures for Formal (i.e. Written) Grievances

Complainants who are considering bringing a formal grievance may at any time meet with the Title IX Coordinator, who will discuss the matter and describe the formal grievance process. Alternatively, a complainant may choose to submit a written grievance to the Title IX Coordinator (including via use of the available Title IX grievance form).

- a. A formal grievance process is initiated when a complainant submits a written statement alleging discrimination prohibited by Title IX to the Title IX Coordinator. In the statement, the complainant is encouraged to request any relief sought from the school. Prompt submission of formal grievances is encouraged.
- b. The Title IX Coordinator will consider the written grievance, and may dismiss the grievance without further process or review if the Title IX Coordinator determines that the grievance on its face is frivolous, not credible, clearly without merit, or outside the scope of these grievance procedures.
- c. If the grievance is not dismissed, the Title IX Coordinator will interview the individual who submitted the written statement. Depending on the circumstances, the Title IX Coordinator also may interview others with relevant knowledge, review documentary materials, and take any other appropriate action to gather and consider information relevant to the grievance. This investigation allows the opportunity for both parties to present witnesses or other evidence. At this time, complainants should be aware that the formal investigation due process generally requires that the identity of the charging party and the substance of the complaint be revealed to the alleged perpetrator of the harassment.
- d. The Title IX Coordinator will determine whether the complainant was excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex under any school program or activity, using a preponderance of the evidence standard. The Title IX Coordinator will consult with other Executive Staff as necessary in reaching a decision regarding the written grievance. The Title IX Coordinator will prepare a written report setting forth findings, conclusions, and actions to be taken, if any, and will determine with whom to share the report.
- e. During such review, the Title IX Coordinator will, as necessary, take appropriate action to ensure that the school comes into compliance with Title IX in a manner which is prompt and equitable to the complainant. For example, the Title IX Coordinator may assure that appropriate changes to schedules or class assignments are implemented.
- f. If the School determines that unlawful harassment or sexual violence has occurred, immediate appropriate corrective action will be taken in accordance with the circumstances involved, and the School will take steps to prevent the recurrence of any harassment or discrimination. Any employee determined by the School to be responsible for unlawful harassment or discrimination will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Remedies for student-related claims may include, but are not limited to, a no-trespass notice, suspension or expulsion.
- g. The decision of the Title IX Coordinator is the final resolution of the grievance.
- h. While the time it may take to investigate and resolve a Title IX grievance will depend on a variety of factors, including the nature and scope of the allegations, the Title IX Coordinator will seek to resolve the grievance within 45 working days of receipt of the grievance. Throughout the process, the Title IX Coordinator will, as appropriate, keep the participants informed of the status of the grievance process.

- i. To initiate a criminal investigation, reports of sexual violence should be made to “911” or local law enforcement. The criminal process is separate from the School’s disciplinary process. To the extent that an employee or contract worker is not satisfied with the School’s handling of a harassment or discrimination complaint, he or she may also contact the appropriate state or federal enforcement agency for legal relief.

5. Allegations of Student-on-Student Sexual Harassment and/or Discrimination

Regardless of whether student disciplinary proceedings or a criminal charge are pending or being investigated pertaining to an allegation of student sexual misconduct, and irrespective of their outcome, the school shall take steps to meet its responsibility to provide an environment where no member of its community is, on the basis of sex, excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. In addition to the procedures described above, the following additional procedures apply in allegations of student-on-student sexual harassment and/or discrimination.

- a. The Title IX Coordinator shall be available as a resource to any staff member who receives an allegation of student-on-student sexual harassment and/or discrimination, and the Title IX Coordinator shall be promptly informed of any such allegation.
- b. As indicated above, following appropriate investigation and review, the Title IX Coordinator shall determine and promptly implement any remedies that he/she believes are necessary to maintain an environment free from harassment and/or discrimination and to protect the safety and well-being of students. Such remedies may include, but are not limited to, no-contact orders, academic accommodations, and/or schedule changes. Adjustments to a student(s)’ educational environment may be taken on an interim or permanent basis. Any adjustments in that regard would not be punitive, and, as such, would not appear on any student disciplinary record.
- c. At any point during an informal or formal Title IX grievance procedure, the Title IX Coordinator may, at his/her discretion, inform other school officials of the possibility that a violation of the student rules may have taken place.
- d. While the Title IX Coordinator will review grievance claims as to whether the school has fulfilled its obligations under Title IX, including whether student disciplinary processes were conducted in a manner free of discrimination, it is not the function of the Title IX Coordinator to hear appeals from, rehear or otherwise resolve student discipline matters based on their content.

6. Contacts

All complaints involving a student will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator is listed below and has the responsibility of overseeing all Title IX complaints and identifying and addressing any patterns or systemic problems that arise during the review of such complaints.

The Title IX Coordinators can be reached at the following addresses and telephone numbers:

6. Prevention and Education

All employees are informed of the Title IX policy upon hiring and at least annually. Students receive information regarding the School’s obligations, recognizing and reporting discrimination/harassment, the School’s policies and procedures, and prevention strategies during their orientation.

Ongoing education is provided twice a year, within the schools, for Title IX compliance.

The School does not maintain professional and/or non-professional counselors/advocates on campus or on-campus police/security. The School recommends that the victim receive assistance through outside sources. The following is a contact list for these off-campus, outside resources:
